New Faculty

Events

Click here to RSVP

The Fine Arts Sampler is on September 14 at 6:00 in the Tornabbee Theatre. This wine and cheese reception will be followed by a short series of music, dance, theater and art pieces. You'll get to meet and mingle with representatives from teaching and learning programs at the reception.

Be A Time Traveler reception is on September 19 at 5:30 in Special Collections in the Main Library. This opportunity to share a glass of wine and a good book is sponsored by the College of Humanities and the University Libraries to celebrate holdings that range from the Reformation to the Borderlands.

The Campus Cookout is on October 19 at 5:30 at the Campus Agricultural Center Pavilion five miles north of campus just off Campbell. Bring your family, partner, kids and leashed pets to take a walk in the fields and enjoy the animals and programs at the Campus Agricultural Center. Also, you'll be able to talk with folks who work with work-life balance programs and related resources.

A Night at the Museum is on November 9 at 5:30 in the UA Museum of Art. This reception provides a chance to enjoy the exhibitions meet with diverse faculty and learn about programs from across campus, including the LGBT Institute.

For questions, please email Asya Roberts, asya@email.arizona.edu