Date: Monday, August 7, 2017 8:58:28 AM

Welcome to the University of Arizona!

We're very excited for you to join this community and even more excited about getting the opportunity to serve you during your time at the UA.

As you prepare for the New Faculty Orientation (RSVP here) on August 15, 2017, the Division of Human Resources wants to make sure that you receive the most out of your time that day. That's why we are offering personalized advising with our consultants regarding your questions about benefits and retirement.

Prior to New Faculty Orientation, we invite you to watch the UA Welcome & Benefits Orientation.¹ This will provide background about some of the great benefits the UA offers, information about retirement plans and some of the services offered by Life & Work Connections. The presentation has been broken up into sections so you can interact with information that is most relevant to you. Then, come to the event on August 15, 2017, attend the Individual Advising on Your Benefits sessions during the 2-2:55 p.m. breakout session or the 3:10-4:05 p.m. breakout session, and get your questions answered.

Also, you won't want to miss the talk with Caryn Jung from Life & Work Connections, about the resources available to you to help integrate work and life commitments at 11:15 a.m. And at 1 p.m., your colleagues from Life & Work Connections will be available for a question and answer session.

If you have any questions, contact the Division of Human Resources at hrrsolutions@email.arizona.edu or call Main Campus at (520) 621-3660; UA Health Sciences at (520) 626-5593; Phoenix Biomedical Campus at (602) 827-2600.
